

Greetz, Pete!

But back to my font: »Jimmy Stash« is influenced by hip hop culture, handwriting and music such as rap, rock and country! Funny mix you might say, but take a look at Rick Rubin! He is one of the most important music producers in the world and he gives a shit about genres. And he produced some of the best records in history like Public Enemy's »It takes a nation of millions to hold us back«, The Cult's »Electric«, Red Hot Chili Peppers' »Blood, Sugar, Sex, Magic«, not to forget the late Johnny Cash records (and a lot more). This font is like the handwriting, you'll find on a mix tape cassette of the best Rick Rubin productions.
